subject: DIA/CIA Collocation, (OL 8 4513x)
 - (b) Memo dtd 8 Dec 78 to DDA fm D/L,
same subject (OL 8 5525)
 - (c) Memo dtd 11 Dec 78 to [redacted]
fm D/L, same subject (OL 8 5539)

25X1

The only information on this subject not previously reported in the references concerns the tasking accepted by DIA to furnish refined personnel figures, including areas of residence, for components to be moved to the proposed building at Langley. On the evening of 11 December 1978, we were advised by [redacted] of the DCI's staff that he was in receipt of an LDX from DoD which contained the information sought by the DCI. [redacted] subsequently provided a copy of this data for our use and future reference.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

In view of the DCI's comment based on his last Duncan meeting to the effect that the DIA building looks dead for the time being, recommend that you ask him if he wants to cancel his requirement to DDA for a weekly status report.

At this morning's meeting the Director made special mention of the fact that the MILCON funds for construction of the DIA Bldg had been knocked out of the FY-80 Budget. This probably means the bldg has been shelved indefinitely. Assume you will check to see if any further reporting is required.
